

Standardization issues in premium support

ISSUE: We continue the Commission's discussion of issues in designing a premium support system for Medicare.

KEY POINTS: We discuss the extent to which a premium support system should have standardization in benefits, cost sharing, and other features.

ACTION: Commissioners will discuss the chapter and provide guidance on direction of any additional work.